ACTIVITIES FOR GOVERNMENT OF SPAIN CONCERNING PARTICIPATION IN THE U.S. BICENTENNIAL October, 1976 - April, 1977 (No. 11, page 3)

The public relations program was conducted in support of activities undertaken by the Government of Spain in honor of the American Bicentennial. The activities were intended to generate greater awareness and appreciation of the cultural and historic ties binding the two nations and to create further awareness of the contributions of Spain to American independence.

Burson-Marsteller's activities during this period included counseling, preparation of informational materials and publicity placement.

A. COUNSELING

This phase of the activity involved discussion of planned activities in support of the program and the public relations elements necessary to make them successful. Timing of the events, invitation of participants from local communities, and the relationship of the events to the communities involved were discussed. Reports on our activities were made to the appropriate embassy officials and Bicentennial Commission officials in Spain.

B. MATERIALS

Burson-Marsteller prepared informational materials for embassy release relating to two Bicentennial program events in Texas in October, 1976.

1. Prepared press release for distribution by embassy and Spanish Consul General in Texas on visit of delegation from Huelva, Spain, to Houston, Texas.

2. Prepared press release for distribution by embassy and Spanish Consul General in Texas on endowment of El Paso, Texas, community theater by Government of Spain.

C. PUBLICITY PLACEMENT ACTIVITIES

Working with the Consul General of Spain in Texas and with the Minister of Cultural Affairs at the embassy, we:

1. Alerted media in cities and states involved in the Bicentennial event to the activities scheduled to occur.

2. Contacted local officials in the committees involved in the Bicentennial event to confirm scheduling of events, participation of local officials and local history of relevance to the event.

3. Provided for the invitation of members of the press to activities relating to the events.

4. Helped arrange interviews with press, TV and radio for spokesmen for the Government of Spain and others involved in the Bicentennial events.

5. Provided the embassy and the Consul General with press materials for release in conjunction with the events.

6. Provided embassy and Consul General with list of newspaper, wire service, radio and TV correspondents and their addresses for distribution of press materials.

7. Contacted newspaper, wire service, radio and TV correspondents and assignment editors to discuss their covering of Bicentennial events.
